Celemony Melodyne Editor v2.1.0.45 Standalone VST.VST3.The present invention relates generally to controls for protecting electrical wires which run under the floor of a house, or in other locations where there may be vibration, movement, or other undesirability. Electrical wiring is known to be a serious problem for many homeowners. Electric wiring, water pipes, and sewer pipes are quite often placed under the concrete surface of a house, and some of these pipes or wiring may extend under the concrete surface for lengthy distances. It is not uncommon, for example
